

2018 MOSEL SLATE Riesling Spätlese

The Mönchhof estate is mentioned first as belonging of the Cistercian abbey of Himmerod in the Eifel in 1177. After the Secularisation under Napoleon the family Eymael bought the estate on an auction in Paris in 1804 from the French state.

Mosel - 100% Riesling

The 2018 Mosel Slate Spätlese from the steep slopes around Ürzig shows its fine minerality that comes from the blue Devon slates where it is grown on. The wine has an elegant bouquet of citrus and flowers and on the palate it shows apple and herbal notes. With its perfectly balanced sweetness that tastes vibrant.

This wine was grown in the steep slopes around Ürzig and Erden. At steep slopes our team hand-picked the grapes. The blue soil charges the sun heat during the day-time and passes it to the vine during the cooler night-time. The grapes are directly pressed after the arrival at the estate.

Serve this wine chilled at 8° Celsius as aperitif on your terrace or as companion for spicy dishes or fish dishes.

8.5 % Alcohol | 60 g/l RS, | 8 g/l Acidity

