Winemaking details

For the WEILBERG Riesling GG only the best grapes were selected by hand, pressed gently and fermented slowly over several months. Due to this aroma-protecting vinification and the long lie-contact, the natural taste of the grapes could be preserved and the wine now reveals its distinctive terroir flavours.

About the Winery

As the Eymael family, we run the Pfeffingen winery near Bad Dürkheim in the Pfalz region with a lot of heart and passion. Producing characterful, individual wines from 17 hectares of the best vineyards is what drives us. Wines where you can taste where they were grown. Wines that promise drinking pleasure and joy. Our love and dedication to wine, our unconditional desire for quality distinguish us. The numerous national and international top ratings confirm our actions.

Vintage Notes

Vintage 2021: light styled and with a lot of aroma - beautiful september saves quality and quantity, very good acidity structure, outstanding GG qualities

Tasting Notes

The WEILBERG Riesling GG shows flavours of sage and wild herbs. On the palate the wine has a wonderful complexity, shows hints of spiciness and is obviously influenced by the long lie-contact. The lovely integrated acidity and the powerful, but elegant body are another proof of a wine of big potential.

Vineyard Notes

The Ungsteiner Weilberg is one of the most historic vineyards of the Palatinate. Almost 2000 years ago Roman settlers founded a winery and by doing so they brought viticulture to the region. The heart of the Weilberg, which is called in common parlance „Red Earth“, is a unique vineyard.

Pairing Notes

white meat, chicken, fish, seafood, asian cuisine
