About the Winery

Weingüter Wegeler is a family-run business founded in 1882. The fourth generation of the Wegeler family continues the long tradition, supported by Ralf Frenzel as speaker of the owner families. All operations are run by managing director Richard Grosche. Weingüter Wegeler has two winery sites on the Rhine and Mosel rivers, all of which focus on Riesling. In 2007, the addition of the 5-hectare Krone estate at Assmannshausen contributed a small but fine share of Pinot Noir to the line-up.

Vintage Notes

A curious year with extreme weather conditions great anxiety and fantastic harvest results. The weather in 2011 brought many surprises for the winegrowers, with great results, but only after the greatest challenges.

Tasting Notes

"So beautiful, so unspoilt: smoky tones in front and behind them clear, fresh, youthful fruit with honeydew melon, peach and citrus. There are already signs of a harmony that will become even better with age. So far, the acidity is still like a string that pulls. The dense, fine fruit holds up against it, showing strength and expressiveness. A wine for the future."

Vineyard Notes

Up to 15 different Erste Gewächs vineyards from the middle and lower Rheingau are combined in a vintage cuvée from the privy councillor "J". According to the principle of the first wines of Bordeaux, the first privy councillor "J" was vinified with the 1983 vintage. The internal quality requirements for this wine are still above the standard for first growths. Secret Council "J" is only vinified in good to excellent years. In rather weak vintages, such as 1984, 1987 and 1991, no privy councillor "J" wine was made.
